36 artists chosen for September 14 Art on the Wabash

West Lafayette, Ind. – July 25, 2008 – Thirty-six artists have been chosen to participate in the third annual “Art on the Wabash, a Local Artists’ Fair” to be held at West Lafayette’s Tapawingo Park from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Sunday, September 14.

The artists include painters Andria Battaglino, Stephanie Comé-Ryker and Alice Harpel, who work in acrylics; Sara Hooker, who uses oils; and watercolorists Lorie Amick, Rebecca Brody, Rena Brouwer, Kathryn Clark and Susan Doster.

Philip Conlon will exhibit wooden boxes; Debby Remsburg, gourd art; and Darlene Mitchell, sculpture. Participating glass artists are Kathleen Kitch, Sharon Owens and Beverly Skinner. Artists working in mixed media are Terri Duncan and Sara Vanderkleed. And those who will display works of various media are Kelly Gascho, Rhonda Mitchell and Craig Whitten.

Jewelry will be well-represented with works by Caroline Erdahl, Kirstin Eismin, JoAnn Titolo and Lisa Walsh. Five potters are participating: Lynne Corrigan, Mary Firestone, Scott Frankenberger, Christine Heisier and Gail Johnston; and four photographers: Nancy Clark, Terry Crose, Phillip DeTurk and Kevin Schnepp. Sonya Basaran and Ron Burgess will bring works in pastels.

Photography by Suzie Coles, a co-founder of Art on the Wabash who died last year, will also be exhibited. Proceeds from sales of her work will go to a scholarship fund she established at Tippecanoe Arts Federation.

Indiana artist Judy Wenig-Horswell, on the faculty of Goshen College, juried the entries.

The fair is presented by the City of West Lafayette, West Lafayette Parks & Recreation Department and Morton Community Center with technical assistance from Tippecanoe Arts Federation and sponsorship funding from KitchenArt, The Store for Cooks.
